

Greensboro – Eight Media Perspectives

PERSPECTIVE	SUPPORTING FINDING OF FACT
1. Nov. 3, 1979, was an unfortunate event and a disruption to Greensboro's civility
2. Police acted responsibly and were the pride of the town
3. Police and government knew of and ignored violence and CWP protection.
4. The march and its aftermath were part of Greensboro's civil rights history
5. Protestors' legitimacy is denied
6. Patriotism of the Ku Klux Klan/ Nazis explains their reasonable actions
7. Klan/Nazi legitimacy is denied
8. Community pulse and response					