

LITTLE ROCK IN BLACK AND WHITE

A Community In Crisis

Use the graphic organizer to organize the information Daisy Bates shares in her interview. First, identify if the individual or group supported, opposed or were moderate about integration. Last, record the evidence from the text that supports your answer.

INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP	SUPPORT, OPPOSE OR MODERATE ABOUT INTEGRATION	SUPPORTING EVIDENCE
(Example #1) African-American Mothers	Support	Black mothers were angered when they went shopping in Downtown Little Rock and could not find a place to take their children to the restroom.
(Example #2) Virgil Blossom	Moderate	Blossom did not want total integration. He interviewed African-American families and discouraged them from attending Central High.
Daisy Bates
Harry Ashmore

TEACHING TOLERANCE

A PROJECT OF THE SOUTHERN POVERTY LAW CENTER
TOLERANCE.ORG

UPPER GRADES ACTIVITY

African-American Fathers
African-American Children
The Little Rock White Community
Orval Faubus
The Arkansas National Guards		